

English

Getting Information from a Conversation Listened to (The mobile teacher should facilitate this module.)

To the Learner

Hello! Are you ready for your next lesson?

Feel good and have fun!

Let's Learn This

Have you tried listening to a conversation? Were you able to get information from it?

In this module, you will be listening to conversation/s and able to answer comprehension questions based on it.

Let's Try This

Choose two students to act out the given conversation. Ask the class to listen and understand its message.

Tell: During the first day of the school, you always look forward to seeing your old friends again. You are eager to meet new friends too.

Listen to this conversation and be able to answer the questions that follow.

TONY : Good morning, Ricky. How are you?

RICKY : I'm fine. Thank you, and you?

TONY : Fine, thank you. Ricky, this is Noli our new classmate. He came from Rizal Elementary School.

NOLI : I'm glad to meet you.

RICKY : I'm glad to meet you, too. Welcome to our school. I hope you'll like it here.

NOLI : I'm sure I'll like it.

Number one is done for you.

 a 1. Who was the new classmate?

- a. Noli b. Tony c. Ricky

Start here.

____ 2. What school did he come from?

- a. Mabini Elementary School
b. Rizal Elementary School
c. Quezon Elementary School

____ 3. How did the children feel when upon meeting each other?

- a. They were sad.
b. They were nervous.
c. They were glad.

____ 4. Who were classmates before?

- a. Tony and Noli
b. Tony and Ricky
c. Noli and Ricky

____ 5. Why do you think they were glad to meet each other?

- a. They were happy because of having a new school.
b. They were happy because of having a new teacher.
c. They were happy because of having a new friend.

These are the correct answers:

2. b 3. c 4. b 5. c

Compare your answers.

Can you give yourself a star?

☐ Yes

☐ No

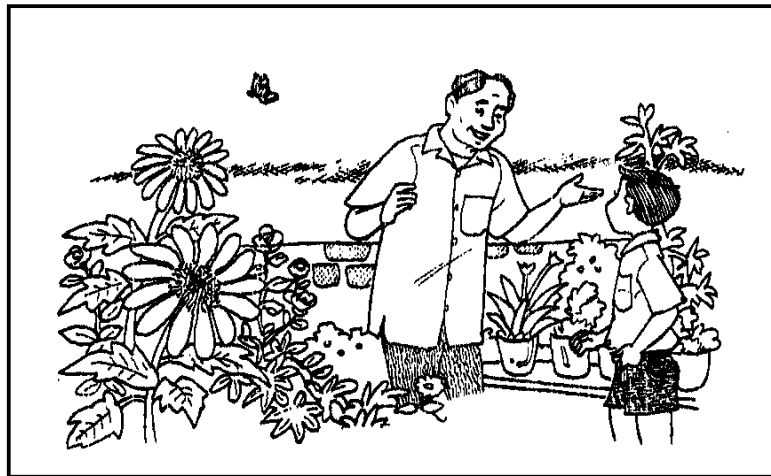

Let's Study This

Choose two students to act out the conversation below.

Ask: Do you have flower gardens at home? What kind of flowers do you have?

Listen as two of your classmates read the dialogue and answer the questions that follow.

Grandpa and Larry are taking a walk around the garden.

Larry

Grandpa

It's going to rain, Grandpa

I like rain

Why do you like the rain, Grandpa?

I like the rain because the rain cools our atmosphere.

What else are the reasons why you like rain?

The rain waters our plants and they grow taller and more beautiful.

Why are you gathering these flowers?

I'm gathering these flowers so that I can sell them to the florist.

Write T if the given statement states a fact about the dialogue listened to and F if it is not.

Number one is done for you.

T 1. Grandpa likes rain for it cools our atmosphere.

Start here.

___2. Rain helps flowers to grow taller and more beautiful.

___3. Grandpa asks Larry why is he gathering flowers.

___4. Larry will sell flowers to the florist.

___5. Grandpa and Larry are taking a walk around the garden .

These are the correct answers.

2. T 3. F 4. F 5. T

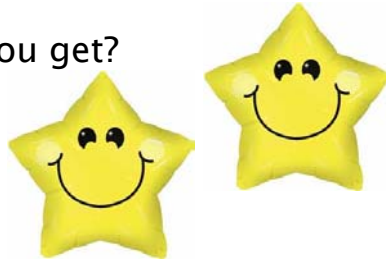

Compare your answers.

How many correct answers did you get?

Can you rate yourself two stars?

☐ Yes

☐ No

Let's Do This

Choose two students to act out the conversation below.

Listen as two of your classmates read the dialogue and answer the questions that follow. Write your answer on a sheet of paper.

Janice: Grace, are you going home?	Grace: Yes, I am.
Janice: Are you in a hurry?	Grace: No, I'm not
Janice: Let's go and visit Carla.	Grace: Why? What happened to her?
Janice: She had an accident.	Grace: What! Is she alright?
Janice: Oh, it's nothing serious. She just fell from the stairs.	Grace: Was she hurt?
Janice: I guess so.	Grace: How did it happen?
Janice: Well, she was in a hurry. She slipped and lost her Balance.	Grace: Too bad. I feel sorry for her. Come, let us go and visit her.

1. Who will visit Carla?

Answer: _____

2. What happened to Carla?

Answer: _____

3. Why did she fell from the stairs?

Answer: _____

4. How can you describe Janice and Grace as friends of Carla?

Answer: _____

5. If you were Janice and Grace, would you do the same thing?
Why?

Answer: _____

Check your answers against the answer key.
How many correct answers did you get? _____
Three stars for you.

Let's Remember This

What are some of the guidelines in listening to a dialogue/conversation?

Here are some guidelines in listening to a conversation.

- ❖ Listen for understanding.
- ❖ Note the important details in the conversation
- ❖ Know the character/ characters.
- ❖ Know the different events.

Remember :

Listening is a very large part of your school learning. It is one of your primary means of interacting. You spent 75% of your classroom time listening to your teacher, to other students or to auto media.

Let's Test Ourselves

Here is another conversation.

Listen for details. Write the correct answers on a piece of paper.

Marivic: Myra, let us have lunch together.

Myra: Aren't you going home?

Marivic: I won't.
It has been raining very hard lately.
I do not want to get wet.

Myra: Come, let us eat now.
Do not buy foods anymore.
My lunch is more than enough for the two of us.

Marivic: Is that so?
Okay, I will just buy juice.
Will that be all right?

Myra: Go ahead. Thanks.

Questions:

1. Who invited Myra for lunch?

Answer: _____

2. Who does not want to go home? Why?

Answer: _____

3. How can you describe Myra as a friend?

Answer: _____

4. If you were Myra, would you share your food too?
Why?

Answer: _____

5. Was the decision of Marivic of not going home right?
Why?

Answer: _____

Check your answers against the answer key.

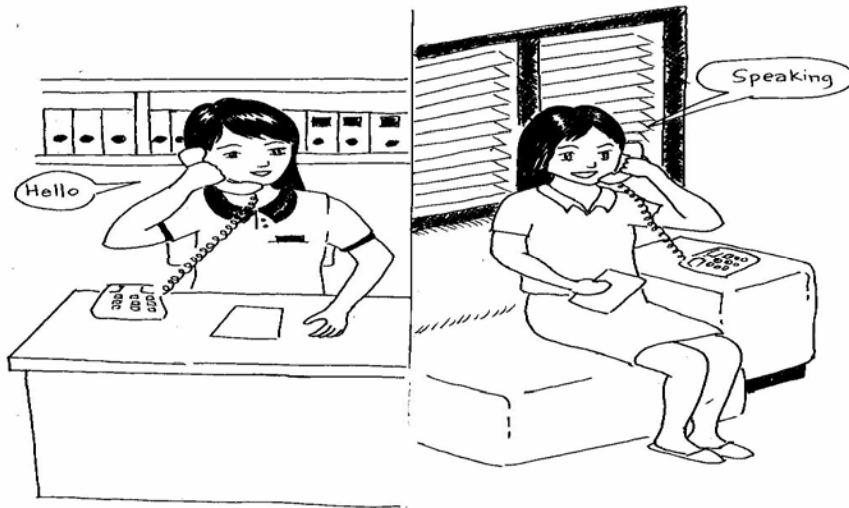

What is your score? _____

Good Job!

Let's Enrich Ourselves

Here is a telephone conversation. Listen to what Ali and Dina are saying. Then answer the questions that follow.

Ali : Hello! Good Morning. This is Ali speaking. May I speak with Dina, Please?

Dina : Speaking.

Ali : I'm glad you're home. How about joining me and my brother in an indoor game here at our home on Saturday?

Dina : That will be great! I'll come over at two o'clock in the afternoon. Thank you.

Ali : You're welcome, see you on Saturday.

Dina : Good bye.

Question:

1. Who called up Dina?

2. Did Ali waste time when she used the telephone?

3. Why did Ali invite Dina in her place?

4. How did Dine feel when Ali invited her?

5. How did Dina end the conversation?

Answer Key

Let's Do This

1. Janice and Grace
2. She met an accident.
3. She slipped and lost her balance.
4. They are thoughtful and compassionate.
5. Yes, we will also visit Carla to know her condition and besides she is our friend.

Let's Test Ourselves

1. Marivic
2. Myra, because it has been raining very hard lately.
3. She is generous.
4. Yes, because the food is more than enough for me.
5. Yes, it was a right decision for her not to catch colds or get sick.

Let's Enrich Ourselves

1. Ali
2. no
3. To let Dina to join in an indoor game with them
4. She felt great.
5. by saying good bye to Ali