Let's Study This

---

Read the story about Glen and his cousins' visit to their grandparents' home.

One sunny morning, Glen and his cousins went to visit their grandparents' old home. They wanted to see the beautiful things owned by his father, uncles and aunts. Grandpa showed them around. He brought them to the old rooms. There they saw men's boots and children's hats. There were ladies' things too. There were ladies' dresses and shoes. They also saw their uncles' shirts and their aunts' bags. Then Grandpa told them that they could have anything they liked. The children went home with big bundles in their hands.

Answer the questions.

1. Who went to their Grandparents' home?
2. Why did the children visit the old home?
3. Why do you think Grandpa gave them the things that his children owned?
4. How do you take care of things given to you?

Read the phrases taken from the story.

aunts' bag
cousins' visit grandparents' home
ladies' things
ladies' dresses and shoes
uncles' shirts
men's boots
children's hats

What have you noticed in each phrase?

How is ownership or possession expressed in the group of phrases?

- Plural nouns ending in s show ownership by adding apostrophe ( ' ) only. (mothers' class)
- Plural nouns not ending in s show ownership by adding 's. (men's uniform)

Look at the examples.
